

Boy Scout Insignia Associate Members

Countries and Territories served by the Scout Association (UK)

Anguilla

The Scout Association of Anguilla

Scouting founded: 1932

WOSM Associate Member

The Scout Association of Anguilla operates as a branch of the United Kingdom Scout Association, due to Anguilla's status as a British Overseas Territory of the United Kingdom. The Anguillan Scout Oath and Law, as well as other Scouting requirements, closely follow that of the United Kingdom.

Membership Logo

The Antigua and Barbuda Branch of The Scout Association is coeducational, with separate sections for boys and girls. Although Antigua and Barbuda is independent, Scouting is a section of the United Kingdom's Scout Association. Scouting is active in most of Antigua and Barbuda's villages, where Scouts learn the basic skills and practice them at an annual island-wide camp once a year. Scouts in Antigua and Barbuda have participated in many Caribbean camps and events

Aruba

Scouting Aruba

Scouting founded: 2000

WOSM Associate Member

Scouting in Aruba shared a common history with the other Netherlands Antilles until the political separation of the island from the Netherlands. Scouting Aruba is an Associate Member of the Interamerican Region of the World Organization of the Scout Movement. Scouting Aruba consists of 13 groups, divided into 3 districts. There is one Scout group for people with mental and physical limitations.

National Flag

Membership

Ascension Island

British Scouting Overseas Ascension Island

Scouting founded: 1973

WOSM Associate Member

Scouting was established on Ascension Island in November 1973. The Scouts share a joint badge with Saint Helena

Bermuda

Scout Association of Bermuda

Scouting founded: 1910

WOSM Associate Member

The Boy Scout Association was formed in Great Britain in 1910 by the grant of a charter by the Parliament of the United Kingdom, Scouting began that same year in Bermuda as well, with the Governor of Bermuda serving as Chief Scout. Robert Baden-Powell (the founder of Scouting and Guiding) and Olave Baden-Powell Leader of Guiding visited Bermuda in 1930. The British contingent to the 14th World Jamboree in 1975, led by 3rd Baron Baden-Powell, included Scouts from Branches in Bermuda, Hong Kong and Rhodesia. In 1993, the instrumental role of the Scout Association of Bermuda was in developing Scouting in many of the islands. In 2004, Bermuda's Scouts participated in a 12-mile (19 km) walk to raise money for the victims of Hurricane Ivan in the Caribbean. The Category 5 storm

National Emblem

Cayman Islands

Cayman Islands Boy Scout Association

Scouting founded: 1920's

WOSM Associate Member

Scouting was introduced into the Cayman Islands in the late 1920s by the Rev. Ed Beale, a Presbyterian minister. Unfortunately, the program lapsed several years later when Rev. Beale departed the island. In 1935, the local movement was revived under the leadership of Ernest Panton. The local movement transitioned in 1993 from a District Association of Jamaica to Scout Association status.

Falkland Islands

Falklands Islands branch of The Scout Association

Scouting founded: 1984

WOSM Associate Member

Scouting on the Falkland Islands started in 1984 when the 1st Falkland Islands Scout Group was established by Staff Sergeant Ian Roberts of the British Army. There is also an Explorer Scout Unit, the Falkland Islands Explorer Scout Unit. Both groups are administered as part of The Scout Association's British Scouting Overseas. The Falkland Scout Oath and Law, as well as other Scouting requirements, are the same as those of the United Kingdom

Montserrat

The Scout Association of Montserrat

Scouting founded: 1929

WOSM Associate Member

Membership Logo

The Scout Association of Montserrat is a branch of the United Kingdom Scout Association, due to Montserrat's affiliation as a British Overseas Territory. The Scout Oath and Law, as well as other Scouting requirements, closely follow that of the UK. Although the program activities are taken from the UK system, Montserrat Scouting is geared to the local way of life. Training for Wood Badge and leader training are conducted with the help of UK and nearby Scout associations. Since the evacuation of much of the island, owing to an eruption of the previously dormant Soufriere Hills volcano in July 1995, information from the area has been difficult to obtain.

Saint Helena

British Scouting Overseas Saint Helena

Scouting founded: 1912

WOSM Associate Member

Saint Helena is a tropical island of volcanic origin in the South Atlantic Ocean. Scouting was established on Saint Helena island in 1912. The Scouts share a joint badge with Ascension Island

Saint Kitts and Nevis

The Scout Association of Saint Kitts & Nevis

Scouting founded: 1928

WOSM Associate Member

The Scout Association of Saint Kitts and Nevis operates as a branch of the United Kingdom Scout Association, due to Saint Kitts and Nevis' former affiliation to the United Kingdom. The Saint Kitts and Nevis Scout Oath and law as well as other Scouting requirements, closely follow that of the United Kingdom. Presently five groups are in operation. Saint Kitts and Nevis Scouts participate in numerous Caribbean camps and events.

Solomon Islands

Solomon Islands branch of The Scout Association

Scouting founded: 1928

WOSM Associate Member

Membership

The Solomon Islands branch of The Scout Association founded in 1928, is a branch of the United Kingdom Scout Association for historical reasons and the fact that the number of Scouts in Solomon Islands is rather small.

Tuvalu

Tuvalu Scout Association

Scouting founded: 1975

WOSM Associate Member

Scouting in Tuvalu was first introduced in 1914, while known as the Gilbert and Ellice Islands. Scouting operated as a Branch of the Scout Association (UK). The Gilbert and Ellice Scout Association was founded in 1927 and joined the World Organisation of the Scout Movement in 1933. The Gilbert and Ellice were separated in the 1970's to become the independent Commonwealth nations of Tuvalu and Kiribati.

7

Membership

Tonga

Tonga branch of The Scout Association

Scouting founded: 1953

WOSM Associate Member

Tonga is one of 29 countries where Scouting exists (be it embryonic or widespread) but where there is no National Scout Organization. Scouting is active in Tonga as an overseas branch of The Scout Association, which allows Tonga to act as a member of the World Organization of the Scout Movement.

Turks and Caicos Islands

The Scout Association of the Turks and Caicos

Scouting founded: 1973

WOSM Associate Member

The Scout Association of The Turks and Caicos operates as a branch of the United Kingdom Scout Association, due to the Turks and Caicos Islands' affiliation as a British Overseas Territory. The Turks and Caicos Scout Oath and Law, as well as other Scouting requirements, closely follow that of the United Kingdom. Although the program activities are taken from the British system, Turks and Caicos Scouting is geared to the local way of life. Training for Wood Badge and leader training are conducted with the help of British and nearby affiliated Scout as-

Membership Logo

Vanuatu

Vanuatu branch of The Scout Association

Scouting Founded : 1956

WOSM Associate Member

Scouting in Vanuatu is recognised by WOSM currently a branch of the Scout Association of the United Kingdom covering the Republic of Vanuatu, however it is a fully incorporated Non Government Organisation since 1999. They are not, as yet, members of the World Organization of the Scout Movement (WOSM).

Scouting in Vanuatu also gets help from members of Scouts Australia and Vanuatu Scouts attended the 2007 Australian Scout Jamboree.

Scouting in Vanuatu started in 1956. Before independence in 1980 there were two Scout organisations, one attached to Scouts de France and the other to the UK Scout Association. They merged in 1999 before Vanuatu Independence both the French colonial administration and the British colonial administration supported Scouting Organisations. After independence the Vanuatu Scout Organisations struggled to integrate themselves into a national movement until 1999. Currently there are four active Scout groups in Vanuatu (1 in Santo and 3 in Port Vila) with over 200 members.

British Virgin Islands

The Scout Association of the British Virgin Islands

Scouting Founded : 1932

WOSM Associate Member

National Logo

The Scout Association of the British Virgin Islands operates as a branch of the United Kingdom Scout Association, due to the British Virgin Islands' affiliation as a British Overseas Territory. The BVI Scout Oath and Law, as well as other Scouting requirements, closely follow that of the United Kingdom. Although the program activities are taken from the British system, BVI Scouting is geared to the Caribbean way of life. Training for Wood Badge and leader training are conducted with the help of British and nearby Caribbean Scout associations.

Countries and Territories served by the Boy Scouts of America

AMERICAN SAMOA

American Samoa consists of five main islands and two coral atolls. The largest and most populous island is Tutuila, with the Manu'a Islands, Rose Atoll, and Swains Island also included in the territory. American Samoa is part of the Samoan Islands chain, located west of the Cook Islands, north of Tonga, and some 300 miles (500 km) south of Tokelau. To the west are the islands of the Wallis and Futuna group. Scouting has existed in the islands since 1928.

MICRONESIA

The Federated States of Micronesia are presently developing Boy Scouting as part of the Aloha Council Pacific Basin District

GUAM

Guam has had Boy Scouting for decades, as part of the Aloha Council Chamorro District. Prior to the early 1970s, a separate Chamorro Council serviced the island.

THE MARSHALL ISLANDS

The Marshall Islands are developing Boy Scouting as part of the Aloha Council Pacific Basin District

THE NORTHERN MARIANA ISLANDS

The Northern Mariana Islands have had Boy Scouting for decades, as part of the Aloha Council Pacific Basin District.

PALAU

Palau is developing Boy Scouting as part of the Aloha Council Pacific Basin District

These six Territories are all Associate members of the World Association of Scout Movements via their membership of the Boy Scouts of America

Countries and Territories served by France

New Caledonia

The Scouts et Guides de France New Caledonia

Scouting founded: 1934

WOSM Associate Member

Scouting is active in New Caledonia. The Scouts et Guides de France is the largest Scout Association on the island. Scouts from New Caledonia participated in the 1998 World Jamboree in Chile, and in the Australian Jamboree in 2013.

Scouts de Guyane

Scouts et Guides de France Region Guyane

Scouting founded: 1934

WOSM Associate Member

Scouting in French Guiana mainly follows the program of the Scouts et Guides de France (SGdF), but there are also groups of the Éclaireuses et Éclaireurs de France. The SGdF's Région Guyane (also known as Scouts et Guides de Guyane) has five groups in French Guiana: three in Cayenne; one in Cacao; one in Matoury. e) is an associate member of the Interamerican Scout Region of the World Organization of the Scout Movement.

Guadeloupe and Saint Martin

Scouts & Guides of France. Territory of Guadeloupe & Saint Martin

Scouting founded: 1936

WOSM Associate Member

Scouting is active on Guadeloupe and on Saint Martin, connected administratively in the Territoire de Guadeloupe et Saint Martin of the Scouts et Guides de France. The Scouts of the islands participate in many Caribbean regional Scout camps, jamborees and other Scout activities. Scouting closely follows the program of the Scouts et Guides de France. .

The Scout emblem incorporates elements of the old coat of arms of Guadeloupe, as well as the old arms of French Guiana and Martinique.

Badge used jointly by Scouts on Dutch and French part of Sint Maarten/Saint Martin

French Polynesia

Polynesia Scout Council

Scouting Founded : 1947

WOSM Associate Member

Scouting in French Polynesia is represented by the Conseil du Scoutisme polynésien (Polynesian Scout Council), founded in 1986. The first Scout unit in French Polynesia was founded in 1947. French Polynesia became an Associate Member of the Asia-Pacific Region of the World Organization of the Scout Movement in 2001. Membership in 2001 stood at 793.

Mayotte

Fédération du scoutisme français
Scouts a Mayotte.

Scouting Founded : 2004

WOSM Associate Member

Mayotte is an overseas department and region of France. It consists of a main island, Grande-Terre, a smaller island, Petite-Terre, and several islets around these two. The archipelago is located in the northern Mozambique Channel in the Indian Ocean off the coast of Southeast Africa, between northwestern Madagascar and northeastern Mozambique. Scouting and Guiding on Mayotte was served by:

Scouts de la collectivité départementale française de Mayotte (until 2004).

Scouts français de la collectivité départementale de Mayotte), which is affiliated to the Fédération du scoutisme

Martinique

Scouts et Guides de Martinique

Scouting founded: 1935

WOSM Associate Member

Scouting in Martinique is administered by the Scouts et Guides de France as an overseas branch or region known as the Scouts et Guides de Martinique. Scouts participate in many Caribbean activities such as camps and jamborees.

Reunion

Scouts et Guides de France, territoire de la Réunion

Scouting founded: 1924

WOSM Associate Member

Scouting and Guiding on Réunion is served by several French Scout and Guide associations. The main association is an overseas branch of the Scouts et Guides de France, territoire de la Réunion.

Reunion

St - Pierre Miquelon

Scouts et Guides de France, St-Pierre Miquelon

Scouting founded:

WOSM Associate Member

Saint-Pierre and Miquelon are a small group of islands in the North Atlantic Ocean.

Other Countries and Territories

Antiano

Scouting Antiano

Scouting founded: 1930

WOSM Associate Member

Scouting Antiano is the National Scouting organisation of the former Netherlands Antilles. It has 1,600 members in 25 Scout groups, 21 groups on Curacao, 2 on Bonaire, 2 on St. Maarten, none on Saba and Sint Eustatius.

Antillean Scouting

Bonaire

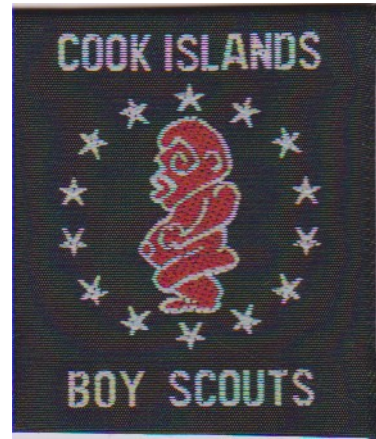

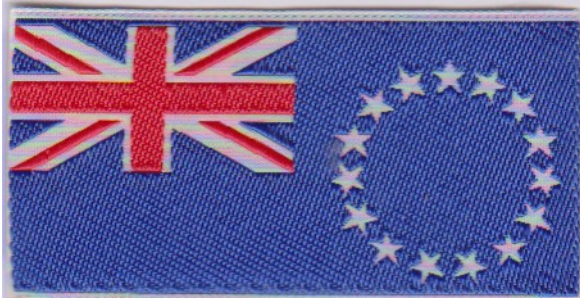

Curacao

Countries and Territories served by Scouts Australia

Territories served by New Zealand

Acknowledgements and Thanks

I would like to thank the following people who have helped me with badge scans and information.

Special thanks goes to Wikipedia and the following:

Piet Kroonenberg, Netherlands.
Colin Wlaker, England.

EUROPE/EURASIA

Thomas Virenfeldt, Denmark.
Hubert Van Mechelen, Belgium.
Harold Daw, Canada.
Pascal Rene Poumailloux, France.
Serge Abou Rjeily, Lebanon.
Angel B. Lopez, Spain.
Eduardo Peixe, Portugal.
Yves Van Wijnsberghe, Belgium.

AFRICA

Harold Daw, Canada.
Pascal Rene Poumailloux, France.
Lynda Jackson, South Africa.
Angel Lopez, Spain.

ARAB

Steve Bull, England.
Aram Joukadjian, Australia.
Harold Daw, Canada.
Pascal Rene Poumailloux, France.

ASIA PACIFIC

Harold Daw, Canada.
Pascal Rene Poumailloux, France.
Alex Lam, Hong Kong.
Goh Yee Heng, Singapore.

INTERAMERICAN

Sebastian Miranda, Argentina.
Carlos Pozo Leiva, Chile.
Angel B. Lopez, Spain
Pascal Rene Poumailloux, France.